quatuor ſpecies : ſcilicet in clau-videlicet  quadrum graue quæ signatur hoc modo  b Natura grauis , quæ signatur hoc modo  b molle acutum quæ signatur hoc modo.   quadrum acutum, quæ signatur hoc modo.  Natura acuta, quæ signatur hoc modo.  per G sol re vt, post eam . Vocantur autem clauēs regulares , quoniam ipsæ regulant Hexacorda : idest sex voces vna-quæque earum . Clauēs principales sunt tres . Natura grauis : b molle, &  quadrum acutum. Clauēs capitales verò sunt duæ : videlicet natura grauis : & quadrum. Sunt enim capitales, quia in cantu plano solummodo capitaliter signantur: & ipsum totum regulant. Quarta diuisio manus est in b molle, & quadrum, ex quo dignoscitur natura manus, secundum diatonicam dispositionē . Fit autem mutatio in manu propter ascensum, & descensum clauium regularium : quoniam cum transitur de vna clauī ad aliam, oportet vti nominibus vocum illius clauis ad quam transitur : & vbi est vna nota, ibi numquam fit mutatio . Vbi vero sunt duæ notæ, ibi sunt duæ mutationes : & vbi sunt tres notæ, ibi sunt sex mutationes , quia prima mutatio mutatur in secundam, & secunda in tertiam : & e conuerso, videlicet tertia in secundam, & secunda in primam . Regula autē tem ad faciendum mutationes solfizando est hæc :

Per salire	(di quarta	(fa, re, mi, fa.
	di quinta	fa, sol, re, mi, fa.
Per descendere	(di quarta	(fa, la, sol, fa.
	di quinta	fa, mi, la, sol, fa.

Mutationes autem fiunt solfizando propē clauem quantum potest . Ad solfizandum quidem multum confe-

conferunt, immo necessaria sunt tria. Primum, scire mutationes, & bene legere notas, mandatis memorie clauibus. Secundo, habere mensuram, quæ est vita cantus. Tertio, voce discernere tonum à semitono. Qui quidem semitonus diuiditur in maiorem, & minorem, sicuti habetur in b. fa.  mi, in quo utimur ut plurimum semitono minori: & semper ubi est fa, mi, ibi est semitonus, siue in ascensu, siue in descensu: & nisi quis recte calleat huiusmodi regulas, nunquam cantor euadet. Cum vero hasce regulas manus optime scies, tunc ad cognoscendos tonos regulares te transfer. Quorum regulæ sunt hæ.

Omnis cantus ecclesiasticus in medijs clauibus terminatur, hoc est in D, E, F, G, grauib; vel in confinale terminum, scilicet à  c. d. acuta: & hoc est, quia nullus cantus ecclesiasticus regularis, supra suam finalem, potest plusquam octo notis ascendere, vel sub sua finali quatuor notis descendere. Præter prædictas vero clauis, nullam supra, vel subtus inuenies, cui non desit plenitudo depositionis, quatuor scilicet notarum, vel eleuationis perfectio, hoc est octo notarum. Igitur primus, & secundus tonus regularis terminatur in D. graui, vel in a. acuto cum re. Tertius, & quartus tonus terminantur in E. graui, vel in a. acuto cum mi, vel in  quadro, de quibus datur talis regula. Quando cantus in prædictis clauibus terminatur, ascendit ad sextam notam supra suam finalem, vel ultra, tunc est authenticus toni, siue imparis, hoc est primi, vel tertij, & hoc siue descendat sub sua finali tribus, vel quatuor notis, siue non. Si vero sub sua finali tribus, vel quatuor notis descendat, & nusquam supra suam finalem ad sextam notam, vel ultra, aut supra ascendat, tunc est toni plagalis, seu paris, id est secundi, vel quarti. Quod si nec ad sextam notam, supra suam finalem ascendat, nec ad quartam, vel tertiam sub sua finali descendat: tunc si melodia & virtus cantus in superioribus notis plus se tenuerit, quam in inferioribus, erit ille cantus tonus authenticus, siue imparis. Si vero plus inferioribus erit, tunc cantus ille toni plagalis, siue toni imparis. Quintus, & sextus tonus terminantur in F. graui, vel in c. acuto. Septimus, & octauus solum in g. terminantur, & de his talis datur regula. Quando cantus in prædictis clauibus vniuersalibus terminatur, ad dyapason, seu duplam, aut octauam (quod est idem) suæ finalis ascendit: semper est authenticus toni, seu imparis, id est quinti, vel septimi, siue sub sua finali descendat, siue non. Quando verò quatuor notis sub sua finali descendit, & nusquam duplam, siue octauam suo finalis apprehendit, tunc est toni plagalis, siue paris, id est sexti, vel octauæ. Quod si nec prædicto modo ascenderit, vel descenderit, tunc si melodia, & virtus cantus plus se in superioribus notis tenuerit, quam in inferioribus, erit cantus ille toni imparis, siue authenticus. Si vero plus in inferioribus, erit cantus ille toni paris, siue plagalis. Toni authenticus, videlicet tertius, & primus, quintus siue septimus, vocibus octo ascendunt, vnicamque vocem descendere possunt. Toni plagales, videlicet sextus, & octauus, atque secundus, quartus pariter, vocibus ascendunt quinque, totidemque descendunt.
